

leave our no call list alone. this is a state law and the federal government should not involve itself in such matters. we enjoy eating dinner without getting numerous phone calls constantly interrupting. thank you